Women's Suits

Reduced

$28.75, $32.50, $35.00 and $40.00

Suits Reduced to $25.

At this time every season, we institute an entire re-adjustment in the women's and misses' Suit Prices. You'll be richly repaid for attending these sales, for the price reductions are great.

Descriptions are dispensed with in this advertisement—only the actual former selling prices—$28.75, $32.50, $35 and $40—and the new selling price—TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS are made. Make comparisons, figure your savings and conclude you will be among the crowds here Saturday.

Mostly all these Suits are our Famous "System" tailored garments, designed in the very latest fashions, correctly modeled, and most beautifully made. Sizes for large women, too.

The "sale hit" of the season--selling the sample plumes at 11.90 and 13.90

Only the finest offered--most gorgeous shadings and color combinations, a rare treat to see--a rarer opportunity to get at these very, very low prices; and, remember, each piece absolutely perfect.

$40 and $50 Finest Plumes for $13.90
$25 and $35 Finest Plumes for $11.90

SOCIAL

Married in Cumberland.

The Salem Herald has the following: Mr. Harlin B. Hall and Miss Zeph Williams, two of Salem's most popular young people, hid themselves away to Cumberland Sunday where they were happily married. Following the ceremony, they proceeded to Washington and after a brief stay at the capital city will return home. Their many friends are eagerly awaiting their return, as their marriage was quite a surprise.

Mrs. Hall is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jehu Williams, while Mr. Hall is one of the city's well known young business men, being engaged in the cleaning, pressing and dyeing business.

They will occupy rooms at the home of F. M. Davison for the present. The Herald joins in the well wishes.

Birthday Party.

A delightful birthday party was given by little Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson, at their home on Mechanic street to a number of her little friends in celebration of her fifth anniversary Thursday evening. Miss Wilson proved a charming hostess and very pleasantly entertained her guests. Among those present were the following: Florence Jewett, Harriett Smithy, Jennie Glancy, Regina Welch, Mary Madden, Margaret Madden, Evelyn Glancy, Julia Phillips, Louis Shinn, Katherine Burke, John Ford, Mary Ford, Donald Wilson, Margaret Wilson, Katherine McAndrew, Robert Parrill, Mary Evelyn Wilson, Dorris Jewett, Margaret Burke, Angela Connell, Gertrude Connell, Elizabeth Stealey, Kathleen Hickman, Frank Lyden, Margaret Gair, Regina Caulfield, and Margaret Moran.

Tea and Reception.

Mrs. Raymond J. Gazley gave a beautifully appointed afternoon tea and reception today from 4 to 6 o'clock in the drawing room of the Waldo, complimentary to the members of the Daughters of the Revolution and their out of town guests. The floral decorations were tall palms potted plants, with festoons of smilax and long stemmed American Beauty roses. The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by some of the members of the Daniel-Davison chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Teas were served all during the hours of the reception on the second balcony and punch was refreshingly served by Mrs. Charles E. Lamberd from a prettily arranged table assisted by several of the young girls. A delightful program of music was rendered by the Cadenza orchestra during the reception and about 100 guests enjoyed this charming social function.

Fortnightly Club.

Yesterday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock the small sewing club known as the Fortnightly club organized for the winter and held its first meeting with Mrs. Cuthbert Osborn in her attractive home on South Chestnut street. Fancy work was the pleasant diversion and at 5 o'clock a delicious salad supper was served. Covers were laid for Mrs. Harrington, Mrs. Elwood Wilson, Mrs. Charles Coffman, Mrs. Spraker, Mrs. Halterman, Mrs. Benjamin Shuttleworth, Mrs. Trothel, Mrs. Guy Tetrick and Mrs. Robert Shuttleworth. The next meeting of the club will be at Mrs. Howard Trothel's, Thursday afternoon November 3.

Suppers at Waldo.

It has been arranged for quite a number of little suppers to be given at the Waldo this evening after the musical review of "The Talk of the Town," which will be rendered at the Grand opera house tonight by Mr. Donald MacDonald, of Chicago, under the auspices of the Marcato Musical Club, and which promises to be one of the most brilliant feasts of music and dancing ever given in the city by local talent.

Celebrates Anniversary.

A pleasant dinner party celebrated the twelfth wedding anniversary of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peters at their home on West Pike street Thursday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock. Covers were laid for the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Peters, Professor and Mrs. F. L. Burdette, and Miss Zella Satterfield. "There was no speaking," said Mr. Peters, "only eating, and having a good time socially."

ALDRICH RECOVERS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Senator Aldrich has recovered from slight bruises received last night when knocked down by a Madison avenue car.

FOREST FIRES.

KEYSER, Oct. 21.—In the neighborhood of Scheil, Mineral county the past week, forest fires did much damage. At mine No. 1 the coal chutes and the tipples have been destroyed.

When the Babe Needs WEAR THINGS

A trip to our infants' department is in order—that is if mothers want the best for their little dears and still pay no more than for inferior sorts.

Long ago we proved this the permanent infants' supply store in this country—ever since we've been adding new merits to this department, making it better and better at every opportunity.

How well we have succeeded is attested by the hundreds of contented youngsters that thrive in our little comfortable wear things. Also by the praises sung by appreciative parents.

Three reasons why you should visit this department—for economy's sake—for the child's sake—and for quality's sake.
